

of scientific agriculture, with its attendant scientific transportation of food products, the days of delayed storage, which is a threat to health and palatability, will be practically at an end. By

J. M. Wiley

* TELEGRAPH BRIEFS *

Miss Helen Taft, the president's daughter, is organizing a corps of camp fire girls in Washington.

Surely Miss Helen is not preparing for a trip "back to the woods!"

James Stine, wishing to be a hero, win his sweetheart and gain promotion from the Adams Express Co., shot up their office at Youngstown, O., last night, wounded himself and resorted to robbers.

It takes all sorts of people to make up the world, and besides, how would the squirrels find food?

Loud cackles from the henery of J. H. Olson, Manitowoc, Wis., were found to be caused by some hen-fruit. It measured 7 and 5-7 inches.

One person goes insane in Wisconsin every 48 hours, according to statistics issued today by state board of control.

What IS the matter with Wisconsin?

One of train robbers killed by express messenger Trousdale, near Sanderson, Tex., has been identified as Ben Kilpatrick, former member of the old "Black Jack" gang of bandits, which terrorized Texas for years.

All trace has been lost of balloon Buckeye, in which J. H. Wade, of Cleveland, started from San Antonio, Texas, to set long distance flight record.

Our idea of no sort of weather in which to set balloon flight records is the kind we're suffering from just now.

Adolph Bernard, 12, St. Louis, tried to pry out bullet from revolver cartridge with needle. Adolph will now have to choose some occupation in which he won't need the two fingers.

Paul Fournier, Bemidji, Minn., who was convicted of one killing in 1907, and acquitted at new trial, was shot and instantly killed by his cousin, George, Cyr, at Quiring, Minn., yesterday.

Mass meeting of strikers Lawrence held on common at Lawrence yesterday afternoon assured the return to work of all employees now out, Monday.

Four men killed, several are missing, and half dozen are wounded as result of snow-slide at Black Bear mine in Ingram Basin, Colorado.

"Teach your girls how to flirt and when to flirt."—Laura B. Garrett, in advice to mothers at Children's Welfare Conference, Philadelphia.

Well, perhaps Philadelphia girls need teaching, but in Chicago—